

Hear what the Lord says:

Rise, plead your case before the mountains,
and let the hills hear your voice.

Hear, you mountains, the case of the Lord,
and you enduring foundations of the earth,
for the Lord has a case against his people,
and he will contend with Israel.

“O my people, what have I done to you?

In what have I wearied you? Answer me!

For I brought you up from the land of Egypt
and redeemed you from the house of slavery,
and I sent before you Moses,
Aaron, and Miriam.

O my people, remember now what King Balak of Moab devised,
what Balaam son of Beor answered him,
and what happened from Shittim to Gilgal,
that you may know the saving acts of the Lord.”

“With what shall I come before the Lord

and bow myself before God on high?

Shall I come before him with burnt offerings,
with calves a year old?

Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams,
with ten thousands of rivers of oil?

Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression,
the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?”

He has told you, O mortal, what is good,
and what does the Lord require of you

but to do justice and to love kindness
and to walk humbly with your God?

Matthew 22: 37-40

Lily Holloway Marshall

He said to him, “ ‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.’ This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.”

Installation confirms and celebrates the covenantal relationship among the local church, its pastor, and the United Church of Christ. It's a sign that these covenantal partners are committed to share mutually and the mission of the United Church of Christ and of Christ's Church in the world. Scripture tells us to respect and honor all those who labor among us and help us in the Christian life. It also admonishes pastors to be faithful and loving shepherds, merciful and patient with all.

Dear pastor and congregation, pay attention to this holy word, cultivate mutual love, and honor Christ, the head of the church, who is your peace. This ministry partnership we are about to seal depends on the fruitfulness of these covenants made in mutual commitment of all the bodies to walk together in all of God's ways.
